I have a suitable OUTFIT, and will sell or tent it with the shore. Bad as the season was in 1857, I made $400 clear of all expense, and not more than half as many hauls made as should have been made. An energetic isherman would not fail to make money on this shore I am certain. In 1856, I fished the shore eighteen days in April, and averaged $100 per day, seiling the fish at six dollars per thousand, and I know that all expenses per day should not exceed twenty-five dollars.
